Wine Chess & Canapé Chess
Captured pieces are eaten and drunk

Takako Saito
Fluxus artist best known for her chess games forcing players to hone their non-visual perception—smell, touch and sound—in order to play.

Dove Bradshaw & William Anastasi, 1983 by Virginia Dwan

Raw Canapé Chess Players
Dove Bradshaw: artist, played chess with John Cage occasionally from 1977-1992

The empty board becomes populated with the black and white raw canapés only when each piece is moved. Otherwise they remain on trays until the players request a waiter or waitress to place them.

As each piece is captured it is eaten.
