DOVE BRADSHAW, Sandra Gering, 476 Broome Street, (212) 226 8195 (through June 27) and Linda Kirkland, 504 West 22nd Street, Chelsea, (212) 627-3930 (through July 11). A Romantic Conceptualist who practices natural alchemy, Ms. Bradshaw presents at Gering four rock-salt boulders; water slowly drops on each of them from a glass funnel, transforming the rock through erosion. At Kirkland, chunks of pyrite dissolve into blocks of limestone, creating beautiful stains, and a delicate double-bulbed glass vessel acts as a clock and level.
